Art Unit: 1732

DETAILED ACTION

1. The objection to claim 2, the rejection of claims 1-21 under 35 USC § 112, second paragraph and the rejection of claim 11 under 35 USC § 102(b) as being anticipated by either Haruta et al (EP 0830928 B1) or Watanabe et al (EP 0831373 A2) set forth in the previous Office Action (mailed on 07 November 2005) have been overcome and are withdrawn.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-21 in the reply filed on 28 December 2005 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

3. Claims 22-42 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 28 December 2005.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

Art Unit: 1732

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

5. Claims 1-10 and 12-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Haruta et al (EP 0830928 B1) for the reasons of record.

6. Claims 1-10 and 12-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Watanabe et al (EP 0831373 A2) for the reasons of record.

7. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Napadensky et al (U.S. Patent Application Publication 2003/0207959 A1) for the reasons of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1732

9. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary.

Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

10. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Napadensky et al (U.S. Patent Application Publication 2003/0207959 A1) for the reasons of record.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments filed on 28 December 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

12. Applicant argues (page 10) that Napadensky et al is not directed to a stereolithography process. Examiner responds that Napadensky et al is broadly directed to three-dimensional object building (paragraph [0002]) and teaches stereolithography (specifically, radiation curable compositions for stereolithography) at paragraph [0010]. The term

"stereolithography" is an art-recognized term referring to a three-dimensional object building process involving applying material onto a substrate, curing the material to form a layer, applying a material onto the cured layer, curing the material to form another layer, and repeating these steps a desired number of times to form a desired three-dimensional object.

13. Applicant argues (page 10) that there is no teaching in Napadensky et al of how their invention may be modified to be used in the presently claimed stereolithographic process.

Examiner responds that while Napadensky et al is primarily directed to three-dimensional printing, Napadensky et al is broadly directed to three-dimensional object building (paragraph [0002]) and teaches stereolithography (specifically, radiation curable compositions for stereolithography) at paragraph [0010]. The term "stereolithography" is an art-recognized term referring to a three-dimensional object building process involving applying material onto a substrate, curing the material to form a layer, applying a material onto the cured layer, curing the material to form another layer, and repeating these steps a desired number of times to form a desired three-dimensional object.

Conclusion

14. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
